OFFICIAL YEARBOOK OF

SCARSDALE HIGH SCHOOL

SCARSDALE • NEW YORK

NDERSNATCH

1950

Dedication

AS we look back upon our high school days, there stands out above all others one man who exemplifies the true All-American spirit. A colorful, controversial individual whose famous ruddy neck, dry Scotch humor, and futile attempts to speak above our cheers and applause at assemblies have endeared him to us all. He has meant more to our community and to us than just a coach of a championship team, for behind his rough, good-natured exterior, there lie those qualities which many of us would do well to imitate. Unblemished integrity, constant loyalty and *devotion, incorruptible fairness and hon*esty, unassuming modesty—these are the qualities which mark him as a man of mettle.

It is therefore with deep admiration and sincere appreciation that we dedicate the 1950 Bandersnatch to this true teacher and lover of youth, DAVID H. BUCHANAN.

The All-American Spirit

DAVID H. BUCHANAN

Dear Ellen,
It's been just terrific knowing you these years, & hope to see more of you, it that's possible next year. I'll see you some this summer maybe. Be a good girl with — — and don't do anything I wouldn't do.
love and carriers (Ha-I hate carriers!)
Louie
Mary Lou for you!

Foreword

AS we, the class of 1950, pass through the gates of Scarsdale High School into the shining, shimmering world at large, we do so with mixed emotions. Naturally we feel a certain amount of elation at being more or less free after twelve long years of work, but somehow we also feel attached to the rambling brick building we call school and all the brightly dressed, loud-voiced kids who have made it live. We are leaving the scene of many tense ball games, memorable assemblies, club meetings, and classes. We hate to part with our classmates and with Bandy, that quiet, good-natured creature who has followed us through all our school activities and kept a record of our doings. We can't take Bandy with us, but we can take his book and with it all the memories of this last wonderful year.

We leave you now.
And to you we entrust the many joys we've known.
To you, the happiness that here we've found—
But memories—those we relinquish not;
Those shall be kept within the deepest niches of our hearts
To be called forth within the coming years
Bit by bit.
And as the tiny particle of salt adds flavor to the tasteless,
So shall our memories add savor to our lives.
We leave you now.
But through these carefully guarded memories,
We will return innumerable times
To share once more the joys, the happiness
We now to you entrust.

CLASS

ZOOM! Crash! Bang! And lots of new identification marks were added to the Great White Fleet in the parking lot of S. H. S. By whom? Those new drivers in the Junior Class, of course. The veterans were startled, to say the least, by the newcomers—Edgemonters, natch! Gosney, Pleuthner and Company really added a bright and pleasing new look to the dim corridors of the institution. The privilege of electing our officers earlier than usual was ours this fall; so we chose Don Seymour, Herbie Duval, Judy Callaway, and Jim Boylan to get things rolling . . . Representing the juniors in the rah-rah section were Pat Berlin, Willie Willenbrock, Joanne Payez, and Dennie Work; while Judy Callaway, "Chirpy" Wesseler, Pat Berlin, and Betty Peterson got to be members of the Glamorous Amorous Athletes—G. A. A. to you. Showing their gorgeous limbs in sports were Shirley Clark, Betty Edwards, Joan Winkle, Janet Landis, Sharon Curtis . . . we got a million of 'em. On the other end of things, Mills Ripley, Herb Duval, Jim Hogan, Jim Boylan, Dan Mayers, Don Seymour, and Bob

OF 1951

Dear Ellen,
This study hall would have been terribly dull without you! You really spiced things up! Lots o' luck - see you next year! Love, Sylvia Mnuchin flexed their muscles on the football field and basketball court. . . . Linda Goetz was admitted into the Inner Circle of the Maroon room . . . Lois Jaffin talked a blue streak in her sesquipedalian accents at the Forum . . . Betty Edwards, Lillian Biersteker, Joe McCadden and George Smith got themselves worn out tearing up high honor roll cards. New fads sprang up for pink shirts (Bernie) and baby tood, which was consumed daily by Lucy Barham, Shirley Clark, Harriette Glass and Pris Mudge . . . Nancy Merrill whipped up a beautiful ski sweater to keep herself occupied until St. Lawrence got home . . . Louise Toole finished another pair of argyles, gaining first place in the knitting contest . . . Dale Spier went through her first tunnel . . . So the year continued until suddenly seniorhood loomed in the near future and the magic number '51 seemed almost within reach of the perpetual speeder, time himself, soon to be a member of our class.

Dear Ellen,
It's been swell knowing you this year. Be sure to keep that twinkle up and next year I will play you and bat you. John

Dear Ellen
It's been wonderful knowing you this year. Hasn't Geometry and Biology been tons of fun. Have a terrific summer and be a good girl.

I'M NOT THAT SORRY SMART

CLASS OF 1952

ONCE upon a June the 14th, a sky bunch of youngsters timidly entered the portals of this institution we all know as S. H. S. These boys and girls were an extremely average crew, the boys in blue-jeans and old shirts and the girls in pigtails and oh, so short dresses. Little did they realize that from among themselves was to come, in their sophomore year, one of the stars of the varsity backfield, Joe Cardinale. They never thought that Chuck Whyte and Al Baldwin would at last get their J. V. letters in basketball or that "Muscles" MacDowell, "Kid" Levy, "Frenchy" Jean-Pierre, and "Super Swede" Ken Swan would be among the wrestling team gladiators; or that Frank Kleeman would get a varsity award in Cross Country. How could they know that Babs Connor would be on the Hockey Honor Squad first team, with Betty Cook, Ann Tobler, Joan Sherwin, Prill Couch, Elsa Weil, and Phyllis Criswell socking the cork on the second team? And who would guess that basketball would give Rosemary Sheridan, Barbara Richter, and Winnie Graham a chance to show their stuff, with Diane Cooper and Doris Franke out as "Rah-leaders"? Volleyball would bring Ellen Schoenig and the same Diane Cooper into the foreground. From our ranks who could say that their Social Planners, Al Baldwin, Ned MacDowell and Connie Gates would keep us so satisfied? And who, at such a tender age, could believe that such a good job would be turned out by Paul Hull, Ed Sholz, and John Spillane in Robin Hood, and by Eddie Dunn in Arsenic and Old Lace? Also, how about Lana Brennan and Joan Sherwin in The Messiah? Add legerdemainians John Seward and Bill Spalding and you have talent and energy ready for action.

BANDERSNATCH

"LET'S see—down payment $1.00—G. O. card? Here's your change—NEXT!" Slight pause for table identification. This is the harassed Bandy staff of 1950, who made a record sale of 755 during their first subscription drive. "Say, how'd you like the assembly? You did? Well, you should have seen the dress rehearsal. We had to life-save Bandy from the dry ice and all! Say, who's that creeping down the hall? Well, don't quote me, but it looks surprisingly like J. and her co-editor Perry—each toting a copy of 'How to Lose Friends and Influence Editors' or 'You Too Can Lose Your Mind in Twenty Minutes!' And we are not jesting!" All the growing pains of raising Bandy were ours this year. Will we ever forget those riots referred to as meetings, the deadlines closing in on us, or the last-minute retakes on senior favorites? Somehow, though, we managed to live to tell the tale and to submit to you our yearbook.

MARCH

LISTEN, my children, and you shall hear the thrilling tale of our class so dear. There's scarcely a senior now alive—who doesn't remember . . . the 1949 spring G.O. campaign, highlighted by Bill's chickens, Lucie's larger-than-life portrait, and Chapin's program of progress. This exciting week finally ended with Bill Ughetta winning the horseshoe of roses, Lucie Bel Barnes placing, and Roger (track star) Chapin coming in to show.

As the doors shut behind us, there was a great commotion getting Doris Perl, Carolyn Bruning, and Lois Vander Feen off to Europe, while the rest of us scattered far and wide like the proverbial "seeds in the wind," only to be blown together again on the 12th of September. Upon reëntering our familiar "institution" as seniors, we observed that during the summer the custodians had been busy slinging green paint and denoising the corridors. (The latter wasn't immediately noticeable because of the shrieks of happy reunion.) Come to join our ranks were Jerry Green, Debbie Dunk, and Kandy Scholl, to say nothing of Mary Wales, who returned from afar.

Along with the novelty of being back at S. H. S., we found some boys, namely Perry, Meril, Mac, Brace, John, Dick, and Bob, trying to act like Indians or at least to look like them —scalped! The girls, not willing to be out-Indianed, produced frightening yellow streaks in their locks by means of the never failing H_2O_2. Ann seems to have gotten somewhat mixed up, however. After such a strenuous week, ye olde students settled down to a quiet week-end of rest. The girls were to be found "quietly" raising Judy's roof, and the boys, well—

Creaking knees and breaking backs—you're right! Cheerleading was back again to find Sally and Midge grabbing hold of the megaphone with the old standbys, Sue, Rocky, Janice, and Delsa. With time out for firedrills, the week terminated without further excitement, and the end (of the week) afforded amusement from Sandy's hen party to Don Starbuck's "pay-for-all."

Things really got under way when the ballots were counted and Sue, Dick, Janice and John were proclaimed our Social Planners. The clubs started their active membership drives, and the flower of school life was in full bloom again, with nothing lacking, not even the thorns. Scarsdale scholars staggered homeward under piles, stacks, loads of books and papers! But, in spite of the lack of space and oxygen, a dance at Janice's somewhat relaxed our overworked sawdust.

The senior class gathered for the first time to choose new officers. Dave, Dick, and "Moose" stayed at the wheel, with Debbie taking Bonnie Brown's place at the secretarial post; while the Junior High selected Jack Wofford and Bob Staley as their G. O. president and vice-president. Meanwhile, the feets-ball team had scrimmed in several scrimmages, and it was evident that "Pinky" had the boys in the pink for the coming season. A rousing rally, with the team forgetting the cue and strolling in five minutes late, raised the pitch of excitement. When the bell rang, the whole school poured from the doors, over the field and onto the bleachers to witness the first stirring victory of the year. Pelham went home the loser by twenty-five points. Spirits were high following the game at the first school dance of the year. However, when Lucie Bel, Mardy, Gil, and Charles Tepe tried to get out for a breath of air, they found it pretty nigh impossible. Nevertheless, all were free in time to patronize Weil's Wilds on Saturday night and to join in the singing(?) which aroused his irate neighbors.

Irwin's "baby" made its debut that week as a "real" school newspaper—it was Maroon and White and read all over. Speaking of colors, the girls were black and blue from swatting at shins and ankles and completely missing the little white ball. Yup—hockey was off to a roaring "stop, hands together, and drive." That weekend Lou and Lucie jumped into a higher stratosphere and were seen swinging among the Ivy.

The mighty red Indians pounded Rye into the mud, eight points under, in their second game of the season. Dave gave us a scare for a minute when his ankle gave out, but you can't keep a good red man down! The cry of the day was "But, Mr. Nelson, we're not booing!" Dick Maslow opened his doors to the mob of joyous visitors and pyramid builders that night. Also there were screams and cheers of "Blood, Blood," mingled with the strains of something about never seeing someone named Maggie alone. Yes, it was a nice quiet evening at home by the fire.

It was 100% or bust! And busted we were after shelling out to join the highest percentage of G. O. goers in years. It was no wonder that cries of mercy were heard when 35 cents was extracted for our first senior breakfast. Mr. Hull, "Our George's" pappy, conducted a quiz program. After Dave had done some lovely portraits(?) on the blackboard, the contestants came forward. Judy Mac, Peggy Gallagher, Ann Cannon, and Kandy Scholl represented the senior girls, while Hutter, Bert, "The Ape," and J. H. Bohr (Gilmer) whetted their wits for the boys. Naturally the better half(?)—the girls, that is—won.

Strange noises seemed to be coming from the music tower on Monday afternoons. Every now and then a squeak would flutter out through an open door. A Capella, which, for the benefit of the masses, is not some sort of sneeze, was the new type of musical organization, clinging, with the assistance of Judy Cohn and Biff George, to a branch of extra-curric activities.

point, complete this series—69½, 7¼, 26—also, This is to That as Is is to— By the way, is your I. Q. two? Then join the S. P. C. A. (Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Simpletons) and withdraw your college application!

Internationally speaking, we all trekked off to the U. N. Can you speak six different languages at the same time while standing on your head? Well, the earphones at the U. N. can; what's more, they can do it on your head!

The first contract came to a roaring stop. Progress (sez who?) cards were red and attendance at week-end activities dropped off for a while. Judy Thompson entertained the girls—and the boys—on Friday, and Meril cleared space for a number of us on Saturday night. The wedding guests arrived two by two to see the lovely couple, Patty and Brace (Mr. and Mrs. Lush) "married" by "Preacher John" Fennie. The pair left amid showers of potato chips.

Some time before the next game, Mr. Buchanan thought that something had to be done for those students who cheer for the opponents' first downs and who think yardage is gained by overeating before the game. And so, Mr. B. pulled an assembly to show us the finer points of the game. This must have been the ticket, because we steamed on, with the Eastchester Eagles twenty-two points behind. Our record remained clean as a whistle. Harvey rolled up the rugs for our proud eleven that evening, and Mardy provided shelter and music for the multitude on Saturday.

Shiny-gold-beautiful-and expensive-yup! That's our class rings. A bit of scrambling and money borrowing went on in line, but we finally emerged with the little blue package and smiling faces.

Brushes, pots, jars, jeans, rags, and paint! People were strewn all over the village. The window painting contest sponsored by the Village Recreation Department for Hallowe'en was the occasion, and although Liz Lienau, Midge Haas, Spongy and Charlee came up with prize-winning ideas, Rod ran away with the grand prize. The Recreation Department really went to town on Hallowe'en with both the contest and the barn dance at the High School.

More football victories! This time Blessed Sacrament bowed to our king of teams. Then for a few hours on Friday night, basketball captured our attention, because Columbia had sent up a squad of five to learn how to play this game of basketball. Our boys showed them! The main question of the evening was to find the House of Mitchell. Absentees in the girls' ranks were numerous that week-end with Doris at Harvard and Frankie, Mimi, Martha, and Kathy at Nichols.

Apparently our entire class is Hollywood material, or so White Studio thinks. At any rate, most of us came away from having our senior pictures snapped dazed by the flash bulbs and "You've got a face there, kid, yes sireeee!" When we got our proofs, we wondered what he meant! Speaking of results, in the fire drill assembly, the whole auditorium was vacated in exactly three and one-half minutes. Speed, hmm? It was again with speed that we left our opponents, Horace Mann, behind to the tune of thirty-six lengths. We hitched our horses to Petrie's barn Friday night, and Saturday night St. James beckoned.

We knew about the odd creatures that Mr. Briggs keeps in the orchestra pit, but the strangest of all escaped during the Bandy assembly. After our first shock, however, we enjoyed the sight of Ronnie "Bandy" Vail cavorting about the stage like a fugitive from Steffi Nossen's. "Moose," Glazie, Judy Freydberg, and Ruel gave us a glimpse into the future. Wonder if they really will look like that in seventy years? Better start on those ear horns now.

Finally the big day came! Marge, Inc., had been busy making stars and sparkling signs all week, and they were now bustling around transforming the gym into the classy Star Light Roof. Our boys were patiently waiting for the big moment. The excitement was contagious, and there wasn't one loyal Scarsdalian who didn't sport some tiny bit of Maroon and White. Before the bell had stopped ringing, we were into the bleachers, and after the ceremonies of the flags, our team kicked off to Bronxville. Right before our very eyes, B'ville pressed forward until they were knocking on our goal line. As they crossed the threshold, our spirits felt like the rain which was making us thoroughly uncomfortable. However, we were not to be daunted by either the rain or that first score upon us, and Bronxville made way for Moose and Dave and the other Raiders as they surged on to victory. With a great roar, "Pinky" and "the hat" were raised onto the shoulders of his well-trained, undefeated squad. After a few short hours, the mud-bedraggled teams and the sopping, wet-haired females were transformed into handsome beaux and beautiful belles who were, for the most part, again bedraggled and sopping after bouncing through "La Raspa." (This is dancing?) At the ceremony in the cafeteria, the cake was cut and eaten, and our boys were cheered as we once more had the coveted silver trophy.

On Monday at the football assembly, Mr. Nelson seemed to have trouble deciding whether or not to introduce Alan's father as "Moose, Sr." All went well until the assembly was over; then for some reason there was dissension in the ranks. Following the "old custom"(?) of leaving school after an undefeated season, many zoomed off in cars or hoofed it to the village. Needless to say, something drastic was done about it.

At our assembly for girls' fall awards, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Leonard demonstrated how cheerleading should be done. (Catch that knee action!)

The long overdue Thanksgiving vacation offered many opportunities for merriment. Alumnae and songs presided at Bernie Cropsey's. Alumnae and pitch blackness were found at John Moore's. If one looked closely, one could see that Janice and Judy J. were nowhere to be found. Where were they, did you ask? Why, at Yale. Maxl's claimed some of our class, too. On the whole, it was a very successful vacation.

Back to school, we saw that everything was set for the fall play, "The Winslow Boy." Rod portrayed the stern father, with Pam Pershing and Hewett (Skip) Lyons playing "bit" parts. Perry gave a party on Friday, but Perry wasn't there. (Figure that one out!) Since people were needed, a long-distance call was put through to the King of Rumania (he wasn't at home). To fill out the weekend, a shindig was held at Shirley Clark's.

After an uneventful week, Friday and Saturday rolled around. Some of us spent the time singing or playing at the County Center. In the performance Saturday night, Judy Cohn did us proud by voicing her musical opinion. Decorating for the St. James dance also was a favorite Saturday afternoon pastime.

Eight more shopping days till Christmas! NO more shopping days until the vice-versa dance. Santa Claus was supposed to arrive at the dance, but he lost his suit on the way; so he sent a cargo of lollypops in his place. Santa probably was all worn out, since he had come in with a Gail of wind to bring gifts for our favorite seniors, who received them with cheers and slightly self-conscious laughter. We would particularly like to congratulate Judy, Dave, and Bill who bagged not one but two of the prizes apiece. By the way, the breakfast was great.

As vacation time drew near, heavenly voices singing "The Messiah" were heard from the auditorium. The largest crowd ever packed the assembly and heard the featured music of seniors Judy Cohn, "Lina," Don Mook, Gail, Marianne, Joan, and Debbie. The kids got the same treatment the next morning. Seniors had the select privilege of caroling in the halls with the brass ensemble. With a Merry Christmas to all we scampered off.

The next time we met was at the Golf Club Dance with those new fangled sambas, rumbas, and what's more, ridiculous congas! "Strike the harp and join the chorus!" Renata and Midge Haas protected us from the rain and we sang and sang (and ate of course!). More caroling at Lucie's on Christmas Eve, to say nothing of the traditional festivities at the fire house. And then to bed, and "while minks and cars danced in our heads," St. Nick filled our argyles with the usual assortment of ties and hankies.

Filled with turkey and contentment, we all spent a quiet day at home. The rest of the vacation was spent in many different activities. Barby Schiff had a hen-slumber party. The supper dance at Hitchcock was very satisfying—good food, lots of alumnae. And New Year's Eve—wonderful! With such a variety of parties to pick from, how could anyone go wrong? Let's see now—Rod Hohl, Pete Model, Walt Weissinger, and breakfasts at Janice's and Lucie Bel's. Take your pick! Put a dime in the hat for every kiss and we'd have enough money to buy Perry a new car. Great sport, this New Year's Eve.

A double marriage, too! Judy and Perry and Pork Chops Trimble and Barb Irish pledged their lives under the old master himself—Preacher John.

Swish! We're off to a fine start in our basketball season. Ruel, Mac, Herby, Del and Dick showed us some of their shrewd little tricks. The girls, however, would still bet Bobbie's hook shot against anyone. Saturday Recreation B-Ball once more became the thing, and the bloody battle was again waged for league championships.

Playing, also, was our orchestra! Mark Chalat and all! Long-haired strains certainly were let loose in the Wednesday assembly and the Sunday afternoon concert. We particularly liked "Jazz Pizzacato." The band quickly followed suit to stir us into a fine marching spirit, mosquito trombone and all. (February is pretty early for mosquitoes, however.)

Pamphlets, notes, and large texts, nothin' more (or less) than college boards, Regents and mid-years! Perhaps it wasn't coincidental, but we decided we'd like to get away from it all! (Far away, maybe Florida.) But we found our relaxation right at home—at the Children to Palestine dance, flappers and all! With Rod emceeing, how could John Kernan, Yvonne, Gil, and Bruce help winning all the prizes? Who wants two tickets to the Roxy? Sunday the Discussion Club traveled to Chinatown to visit Tom Noonan's Rescue Society.

Say, where do ya get those things?—red and white hats, pompoms to match! That's Liz, Sally, Carol "Cattle" Anderson, Bobbyann, Brownie, and Bob Geissinger. (Hey! How did he get in here?) Fashion was the show for a mile, as crowds in the Public Speaking Room seemed to indicate. Crowds also went to Hamlet, which became the topic for many discussions.

Our bowing to Pelham's squad should be certainly attributed to dull axes. We just couldn't chop down that "pine tree." However, Abe, a more successful ax-swinger, really came through to rest our aching muscles and brains—four whole days of relaxation. Cupid sent us the following sentiment on our Valentine—"Roses are red, violets are blue. Is that a face, or were you hit with a shoe?"

On February 15 our own Mr. Nelson "pinch-hit" for Dr. Krout and made our assembly very inspiring.

The first indication of our coming graduation was the measurement for caps and gowns to the accompaniment of many red faces. "54-40 or fight!" We got a large charge out of Eddie Dunn, Sally Smith, Julie Radebaugh, and Sandy Rubin in the production of Arsenic and Old Lace. Nevertheless, the College Board charged us quite a bit just to let us in on the secret that we were not quite so smart as we thought we were. Result: "Oh-I'll-Never-Get-Into-College" complexes.

"You're out!" So was spring, when young men's hearts turn to thoughts of baseball and track. We all turned out to watch Bruce Phillips burn up the cinders and Meril, Masie, and Mike hit 'em into the stream. Drippy good-humors, pigtails, and slightly lobstered faces flourished with the warm weather. Over the Easter vacation classmates were found making forages to

Jones Beach when Jones wasn't there and convening on the south field to practice pitching the ball around.

After Chapin had ably expressed his desire to get us on a "Slow Boat to Peekskill," the class en masse, accompanied by our pals, Mr. Ryan and Mrs. Steele, produced tickets and somehow managed to refrain from taking a nice cold dip in the icy waves on our senior jaunt up the Hudson.

It was a gay crowd which turned out to swing and sway at the Spring Prom. Maybe college acceptances had something to contribute to the happy faces! Robin Hood himself was seen, although more often perceived by the auditory sense, around the halls of ye old habitat. The rafters rang and the lights were dimmed to see the green-clad gentleman stroll on the stage. During the performance, many familiar singers were heard for the last time. Judy Cohn, Rod Young, Gail Cameron, Marianne Glasel, Don Mook, and Debbie followed R. Hood on his merry way.

Class Day—this privilege of privileges—foretold that our experiences and escapades in the high school were drawing to a quick close. That last breakfast together, that scramble to get and sign our Bandys in Gym C and D, that old tradition of planting ivy, that skit, that class will and testament, that dance sponsored by our successors-to-be all added up to nostalgia and thoughts of the future.

The next month was here and gone. Where was it? Nothing but a memory to slip in among the thoughts of dances . . . Pizza Pie at Papa John's . . . those hours spent in senior study hall . . . the mad dashes when the bell rang and saved us . . . the college weekends . . . the notebooks with oh, so many names and places . . . the crowded halls . . . that game in the afternoon . . . the chants and singing in the cafeteria . . . the assemblies . . . the teachers—were they actually the slavedrivers we thought they were? . . . the homework that was never finished . . . the phone calls . . . the perpetual war-whoop of "We will beat Bronxville!". . . the Regents that had come and gone for the last time . . . the mark posting . . . That was our senior class—nothing more or less—an average bunch. Soon the farewells to our teachers and friends and the class of 1950 would march down the familiar aisles to shake Mr. Nelson's hand and receive the diplomas. Our Graduation . . . We are the Alumni . . .

Dear Ellen,

My, My, (just to begin again) this year has been wonderful, I'm glad I finally got to know you — Just kidding - We've really had oodles of fun, and you really must get new glasses, for waving in assembly I mean. So much has happened this year I don't know what to say — We haven't had a fight(?!) all year! ha-ha..); We've shared and shared alike — I think I'll leave you a green convertable in my will (appropriate) — you've seen me through all my various crushes; likes; dislikes hates. Hope you're growing lines have cleared up — Oh my That wasn't even funny!!!!! Oh my..

Remember those lovely afternoons we were double, "Dick & Dick Inc." They were real. Saturdays have really been most fun — "Lets go to White Plains — " "No, what does do you want to go there for" — "O.K., Lets go to the High School — " "No, what do you want to go there for" — "I hate you!" "The feeling is likewise" — "Goodbye!!!"

"It's him again!!" "Look at the funny little man," "He's a cutie" —

I just can't say any more —

Oodles of love
Have buckets of fun this summer
Good-by; my,
love. xxx
Barbara

Dear Ellen -

If I could write many passionate words, like you, I would return all your compliments. But, since I can't, every thing you said to me goes double for you. I, too, am glad we are on good terms

Love ya too!!
Steve
Kitten plan

Dear Ellen,
got to be such good friends this year! It was fun working in the variety show together;
good luck in Latin next
(and all the others too?)
Have fun this summer but don't do anything I'd do!
Love,
Lana

"SAY, can anyone tell us what goes on in 138 every Thursday afternoon?" Sure enough! Robert's Rules provided a parliamentary background for the legislation of laws to benefit the whole school. Bruce Swan was the man behind the money, and Lenny Marx jotted down the proceedings in his little black book. Other notables were Rod Young, Chairman of the Social Planning Board, who kept us well supplied with dances; Roger Chapin, whose silver-tongued oratory led to many enjoyable hours in the assembly hall; and Meril May, who conducted all the elections. Of course Charles Stewart's hilarious Service Committee reports cannot be forgotten. With the efficiency of President Bill Ughetta and Vice-President Lucie Bel Barnes to tie up the council in a neat little package, how could the school help having a prosperous season? To begin with, the G. O. drive was the most successful one in years. Money was allotted to various organizations, clubs were chartered, tickets for big games were distributed, and a noontime study hall was set up. Naturally, as with all fruitful reactions, a certain amount of heat was generated, and the G. O. was not an exception. However, on the whole, the school was well-governed throughout the year.

JUNIOR GENERAL ORGANIZATION AND ACTIVITIES

Sitting: M. Berniker, J. Allen, S. Lowenthal, R. Staley, Vice-President; J. Wofford, President; M. Swanson, Secretary; L. Smith, Treasurer; K. Finsterbush, J. Follett. First row, standing: Mr. Holden, Advisor; D. Berens, D. Smith, L. Ritchie, M. Leahey, A .Haas, N. Hunger, T. Hirtz, M. Mah'er, D. Leavitt, J. Richter, G. Lamb, C. Ponton, H. McEldowney. Second row, standing: P. Buchanan, P. Fitzpatrick, E. Smoley, B. Madill, N. Dennis, D. Rogers, M. Singer, D. Crimmins, S. Holmes.

WAIT FOR ME!

THE Junior High started the year off right with a very close election. The margin beiween the winning and last candidate was only about thirty votes. Jack Wofford was the winner with Bob Staley only a little behind. The suggestions of the other candidates, Kurt Finsterbusch and Sa!ly Lowenthal, were weighed and considered by President Wofford and Veep Staley. A drinking fountain near the tennis courts and M. F. A. D. (Mayor for a Day) were two important proposals included in the Junior G. O. agenda.

Another accomplishment of the Junior G. O. was their questionnaire which was divided into three parts: assemblies, dances, and activities. With the results tabulated, the Junior G. O. discovered many interesting details. One of the major proposals was Jack's plan to have Ninth Grade Favorites. The choices will be published in Scrivener near the end of the year.

The noontime study hall was continued under the sponsorship of Aristoi. A new club, the Junior Discussion Club, was formed under Mr. Gross' sponsorship. The Junior Dramatic Club's hard work under the direction of Mr. Flaccus was amp'y rewarded by the enthusiastic reception of its two plays, "Gold In the Hills" and "You Can't Take It With You."

The year 1950 was without a doubt a progressive one for the Junior High.

MEN OF DISTINCTION

DON'T stare like that—it happens in the best of families. Just so happens that when brains were being distributed they grabbed the large economy size! And, aside from being constantly "in the know" in the classroom, these bright ones are fast becoming the most photographed faces of 1950. Seems they remembered to join all the clubs you meant to, but never quite got around to. In addition to their well-known daily escapes from boredom, Matthew offered a relief this year in the form of a noon-time study hall. Mr. Melchior and the Foremost Minds of S. H. S. comprised the Chief Advisory Board.

EXTRA SPECIAL

TIME: 7:00 (P.M.!!) PLACE: SMALL CUBICLE IN DESERTED S. H. S.—CHARACTERS: DEUTSCH'S DEADLINE DODGERS——

In the doorway, clutching his whip, crouches Madman Myers trying vainly to catch Jolly Jub Jub, in the form of Glazie, swinging atop the file cabinet and shouting the latest scandal! Huddled in the corner is Rod Hohl, gazing into his crystal ball before predicting the next athletic win or disaster, while Julie Radebaugh sits tearing her hair over the news her reporters casually forgot to write. As Bruce Phillips tries to get unstuck from his newly-made dummy, Norman inquires about the bus rates to Bloomingdale's! Thus another issue of Irwin's "large economy size" paper staggers off to press!

MAROON STAFF

First row: J. Miller, R. Jones, J. Radebaugh, Mr. Myers, Advisor; N. Weil, W. Reed, L. Marx. Second row: R. Gibson, J. Berry, B. Hoyle, J. Crimmins, J. Freydberg, S. Carson, S. Petschek, B. Logcher, M. Towe, P. Model. Third row: J. Lyman, B. Merrell, C. Van Zelm, C. Hyland, N. Lightbody, E. Minton, C. Corbett, C. Rodgers. Missing in action: I. Deutsch, Editor-in-Chief; R. Dohrenwend, Associate Editor; M. Glasel.

FORUM

FOR 'EM OR AGAINST 'EM

LOOKING into our G. O. files the other day, we found its recipe for an exceptionally fine organization. Follow closely and good results are guaranteed. Take a dash of Deutsch, a sprinkling of Jaffin, a teaspoon of Thies; stir in a cup of Weil, add an expansive vocabulary; and give to Chef Connor to mix as only she knows how. Place in the Public Speaking Room for an hour, and we know that you'll come up with the finest debate of the year. Before serving, mix with a garrulous team from Bronxville, and you can be sure that the flavor and spice of the S. H. S. Forum will top all.

SCENE ON THE STAGE

THIS year the S. H. S. Thespians astounded us by giving forth with a professional production of the recent Broadway hit, The Winslow Boy. Directed by Mr. Hemmerly and led by Marianne and Rod, the cast amazed its audience during the nights of its performance. In the spring, this inspired group undertook to produce another past Broadway hit, Arsenic and Old Lace. The club was greatly aided this year by Mr. Hemmerly, together with a rising new group of stage hands and scenery designers. From the amount of talent displayed this year, Bandy predicts that each and every member of this amazing group will soon be starring on the Great White Way.

DRAMATIC CLUB

First row: M. Gallagher, B. Coleman, V. Hirshberg, J. Freydberg, Mr. Hemmerly, Advisor; M. Giasel, J. Geisman, N. Merrill, L. Butcher, M. Rizzi, A. Micou. Second row: P. Pershing, S. Singer, D. Perl, C. Springer, J. Maloney, M. Hammond, B. Fontaine, M. Towe, Y. Sandri, M. Wales, B. Summers, S. Mudge. Third row: F. Judy, R. Gibson, A. Kaiser, R. Phelps, N. Weil, R. Geissinger, S. Lyons, B. George, R. Theis, D. Carson, A. Robinson, C. Metzger, D. Mahaney. Fourth row: S. Smith, R. Hohl, W. Graham, A. Haas, A. Tyson, R. Dohrenwend, C. Anderson, N. Casey, F. Fink, G. Cameron, E. Bates. Missing in action: H. Beard, H. Beer, M. Brantley, L. Brennan, A. Budlong, L. Cabri, C. Carlson, J. Christy, L. Cohen, P. Couch, J. Crimmins, S. Disick, D. Dunk, M. Emery, M. Fordrung, B. Hoyle, L. Jaffin, D. Kahn, K. Kursell, M. McCall, M. Moore, J. Nichols, J. O'Brien, D. Parker, C. Rogers, T. Rosenthal, N. Salter, E. Seigel, C. Schiff, H. Schwab, P. Schultz, J. Sherwin, A. Smith, G. Tillinghast, J. Taxin, A. Verrilli, R. Young.

LAISSEZ-FAIRE

ALTHOUGH the picture shows only the smiling visages of the illustrious seniors, French Club boasts of over 100 members. Directed by M. Reid and Mlle. Glendenning and headed by Doris Perl, Les Étudiants de Francais held bi-monthly meetings, directed and produced plays and held bridge parties. The big day arrived when the more faithful were permitted an excursion under the paternal eye of M. Reid to the Big City. Events of the JOUR included a French luncheon and a visit to LE CINEMA.

¿QUIEN SABE?

THE order of the day may be anything in El Rancho Grande, Room 139, on a Thursday afternoon. El Presidente Jack Jones and Advisor Mrs. Marshall have used various methods of pleasing the members. An afternoon has been known to feature a piano recital, Mexican dancing, and an informative talk on South American bullfighting by members in the know. The day has yet to come when the members aren't heard shouting "Muchas gracias" and "Hasta manana" as they vacate the friendly portals.

FRENCH CLUB

First row, sitting: Mr. Reid, Advisor; J. Warendorf, Executive Board; D. Perl, President; D. Mead, Executive Board; Miss Glendenning, Advisor. Second row: M. Block, E. Lienau, A. Haas, J. RIFLE CLUB

First row: P. Surdy, Treasurer; C. Tepe, Vice-President; J. Staley, President; J. Jenkins, Secretary. Second row: B. Borne, C. Corbett, S. Gessler, C. Springer, J. Nichols, N. Merrill, J. Winkle, C. Sevilla, B. Summers, P. Maahs. Third row: R. Pearl, H. Miltner, R. Currie, W. Beard, B. George, E. Brandeis, N. Citron, T. Throop, Mr. Pfaff, Advisor. Fourth row: R. Wise, R. Leerburger, A. Romm, M. May, J. Newman, D. Hildebrandt, D. Tiihonen, J. O'Brien.

ACH!

AND as we say in the old country . . . "Dudelsack spfeifermacher"—So there! Fortified by strong stomachs and an endless oxygen supply, Mark Chalat and his bunch carried on the traditions of "Tongue Twisters, Inc." Alert eardrums and a knowledge of the location of "Middle C" seemed to be the membership qualifications this year. Activities included discussions of music, listening to music, and mad jaunts to N. Y. to (You guessed it!) hear more music.

BIG SHOTS

"O. K., Joyce, drop that gun! Oh—I beg your pardon—is it legal? You mean this organization of pistol-packin' mamas has been battling it out in Room 40 all year without so much as a bing from the rest of us local dead-eyes?" Yes, and furthermore, what you may think is the Atomic Bomb is merely Mr. Pfaff's organization of B-B Brains, Inc. out for target practice.

SNAP IT UP!

CLICK! "That picture may be in the Bandy!" shouts one of Dick Pearl's little men as he sneaks out of some ridiculous place with a silver-bromide full of interesting details for Mr. Kelly and the club. "Looks like another night in a darkroom!" has become the motto of all members, who seem to enjoy the work they do there.

CAMERA CLUB

First row: T. Hessberg, R. Hoebermann, T. Halper, S. Lewis, R. Pegg, J. Leavitt, N. Weil, Vice-President. Second row: S. Rich, C. Tepe, D. Tiihonen, P. Model, Secretary; F. Pape, Treasurer. ZIP, dit, dit, dit, dah! "I got an S. O. S.! Don, Mr. Clark, Doug, come listen!" Yes, it's one of those Thursdays in Mr. Clark's forbidden room. Untangling one's self from the maze of wires, tubes, and evil-looking sparks, one finds himself in the midst of a fiendish bunch of geniuses working out Ohm's law and practising on the code oscillator.

ON THE BEAM

THE HUCKSTERS

THESE hucksters, armed with charm and smiles (with a whip hidden in case of resistance) invade the local shops prepared to do or die in an effort to secure advertising for school publications. Mr. Crafts, assisted by Barbara Lamb, is in charge of this constantly growing organization. Chief efforts are the back pages of BANDY and spare sections in the MAROON.

PRESSED FOR TIME

ON December 10, 1949, the Printing Club, advised by Mr. Bush and headed by Doug Morgan, became a proud parent. The new arrival, promptly named New Printing Press, weighed approximately 1025 lbs. The club became busier than ever with the arrival—changing its . . . oil and printing thousands of pieces of paper for various organizations.

HICKORY BENDERS

"LOOK! If you don't mind, would you kindly remove your ski from behind my left ear? Well, whadda ya know—a tree. Imagine that!" Better known among members as "BOTTOMS UP," this newly-formed crowd of champions devoted most of the snowless season to humming "I Can Dream, Can't I?" and never foregoing their Wheaties just in case! With Doc Farrow along to pick them up, Dick Grunebaum and his crew of daredevils had fun and a pack of memories, certainly more than the rest of us who stuck to shoes and roller skates.

PAGING NANCY

"WE put up a good fight" might very well be the motto of Nancy's tip-toeing librarians, junior grade. From digging up lost books, keeping the card catalogue (Source Theme students, take note.) in order, pushing overloaded carts around the library to chasing overdue books, theirs is an exceedingly busy lot. Moreover, they do an excellent job of serving at various faculty teas. Without their invaluable service, our library would not be the stimulating and useful place that it is today.

Dear Ellen, We almost got you to be our homeroom representative but—. I know you're rather absent minded when you leave 240 without me but I understand. You were terrific in the variety show. Jane JAM SESSION—"Hey, 6W85-85, swing that Ford hot-rod this way. The whole parking lot's not for you!" These protectors of the parking area are kept mighty busy reserving the reserved area for faculty members only and trying to enforce our new one-way Brewster entrance. Hail to the Defenders of the Dodge—captained by Dick Apgar and advised by Mr. Hanson.

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS—"One eraser, a paper clip, 2¼ sheets of graph paper—change that look or I'll take my business elsewhere!" The courageous souls behind the counter who tolerate this have somehow managed to keep that who-let-you-in-here tone out of their voices. Hats off to Mr. Jamison and his crew for constantly saving us from sure doom for lack of everything from thumbtacks to notebooks.

OFF ON THE WRONG TACK—"Ouch—! Stop stapling my fingernail to the 'top ten' announcement. Now, if you'll kindly un-scotch tape my left ankle from the showcase, I'll look up the coming attractions at the cinema!" A new shipment of sparkle stuff and three barrels of thumbtacks greatly aided Nancy and Peg this year. Keeping us in the know about any and everything in an artistic manner is not easy, and we heartily bestow our humble thanks.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

First row: M. Chalat, Vice-President, Concertmaster; J. McCadden, P. Laubin, D. Berens, S. Carson, C. Cubiciotti, E. Sholz, President. Second row: C. Borton, K. Malovany, B. Rizzi, A. Chamberlin, A. Fehskens, J. Citron, P. Austin, Secretary; F. Stillinger, T. Barnet, N. Citron, L. Valenstein, S. Greenburg, J. Fryer. Third row: D. Monroe, T. Howell, M. Romm, A. Throop, V. Hubbell, N. Moore, J. Newlin, J. White, C. Wilson, D. Leerburger, L. Cleveland, Mr. Desort, Conductor; B. Cuhn, N. MacDowell, G. Hammond, B. Madill.

"O.K., Nancy, give me an A." With those words from Mr. Dezort, the orchestra started tuning up last September for one of its biggest years. A running mate with the combined choruses, the 37-piece organization admirably held its own in the presentation of the Messiah by Handel. Featured in this production were Mark Chalat, concertmaster; Joseph McCadden; Barbara Madill; and Carmela Cubicciotti, who supported the soloists to advantage.

Spurred on to greater heights, the orchestra with the addition of a harp presented their annual concert on January 22, which was received enthusiastically.

Not to be forgotten is the music which was provided before and between the acts of the Dramatic Club productions in the spring and fall.

President Eddy Sholz was transferred to the singing end of matters at operetta time, but Vice-President Mark Chalat and Secretary Pam Austin remained on the instrumental side to carry on the job with flying colors. The Robin Hood score, though difficult, was extremely well-executed by this musical aggregation.

When the band ceased, the orchestra took over some of the assembly programs. It made its bow for the year at Commencement exercises with much Pomp and Circumstance.

Much to be admired and appreciated is the hard work put in by these musicians and by Mr. Dezort, with his limitless energy as conductor. A musical tribute to them for a job well-done!

LET the drums roll out, let the cymbals clang, let the people shout—for our wonderful band. This year, as always, the band was in top-notch form and added greatly to the school's musical credit. Playing for most of the school assemblies as well as the football games, the band was well heard from indeed! Never will the student body forget the melodious strains of "A Wonderful Guy" floating up to the grandstands, as one of the Scarsdale eleven lay wounded on the field of combat. The twirlers, Eddy, Kathy, Ruth and Joann, stepped high in fine style, and the fine baton routine never ceased to amaze everyone!

At Christmas the band's inimitable brass ensemble traipsed through the hallowed halls of S. H. S. and gave forth carols.

As the year wore on, and Mr. Briggs' hair wore thin, the band's annual concert was polished and seasoned for presentation on February 5. An enthusiastic audience applauded a very well-planned program, and all were duly impressed by Neil Citron's exceptionally fine clarinet solo.

Spring came, and with it the fever and rehearsals for the band's annual Pop Concert. Successful as ever, the band's "Weather permitting" clause concerning their outdoor performance was promptly discarded.

The band, prexied by John Newlin, vice-prexied by Neil Citron, and secretaried by Sheila Carson, had a bang-up (and we do mean bang-up) year. Much credit is due this hard-working group of musicians and their competent band master.

GIRLS CHORUS

In Front: J. Conn, President; B. A. Roesen, G. Lawson, Conductor; N. Moore, S. Smith, Secretary. First row: D. Walsh, J. Westmen, J. Warendorf, C. Olcott, B. Clapper, N. Morrison, J. Carswell, M. Kelly, D. Koch, J. Koerner, H. Ridgway.

HARK, hark! The larks were back at work producing some mighty beautiful sounds. Seventy-seven female thrushes emerged from an environment of lunchbags, knitting, and noon-time gossip to produce one of the best Christmas concerts ever. Prexy Judy Cohn, Joan Brice, Secretary Sally Smith, Carolyn Bruning, and Vice-President Debbie Stoddard combined their vocal talents in making a good program even better.

Back up in their tower of the ivories, work began on Robin Hood after Christmas vacation. This Reginald DeKoven operetta broke the Gilbert and Sullivan tradition at SHS for the second time, and was awarded a most enthusiastic audience. The chorus girls looked fetching as milkmaids and village folk, while Judy, Gail, Debbie, and Marianne were successful molls of Robin's clan. Another hit was chalked up for Mr. George Lawson, under whose mighty baton the work of the Girls' Chorus was so well done.

After the operetta, work was by no means finished. The annual Flag Day Assembly, another challenge, was met with flying colors—a perfect end to a successful year.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

MORE NOTE

Dear Ellen
I know I am not a good ball player. But at least I tried. It sure was wonderful having you as a captain. Well I'll be seeing you. Good luck. Have a swell summer. Love Cynthia

HAVE you ever sat in the library, minding your own business, when all of a sudden a tumultuous blast issued forth from the very foundations of Scarsdale High? That, my friends, is Scarsdale's own Junior Orchestra sounding off. This group of pint-sized musicians is composed of nineteen boys and girls.

The chief aim of these young musicians is eligibility for the Senior Orchestra. Hence, this smaller group actually serves as a training ground. The senior group has gained Adrian Throop, a seventh grader, from his previous position in the Junior Orchestra this year.

In most other years the Junior Orchestra has been afforded the chance to play publicly for the Junior High Christmas program. However, this year no Christmas program was presented, and the musicians were deprived of their big show of the year.

Nevertheless ,the orchestra persevered under the steady and helpful guidance of Mr. Dezort and, musically speaking, had a very worthwhile year.

Ellen - Congrats on a great performance in the show; it was swell - Ed Dunn

WORTHY PEOPLE

BELLOWING baritones and tremulous tenors once more were on the Scarsdale High School musical scene. This year, as has been the case in other years, the boys concentrated their efforts on the Christmas program and the operetta.

The Glee Club was really outstanding in the Messiah, and it was as a result of this production that the anonymous quote came: "This is the best boys' chorus the school has ever had."

With these laurels won, the Glee Club launched into Robin Hood, to earn even greater praise for themselves. President Rod Young, Paul Hull, Eddy Sholz, Vice-President (or President of Vice) Don Mook, and John Spillane captured honors with the outstanding performances they gave in the operetta. The Boys' Glee Club really was dashing when it appeared the evenings of April 28 and 29 resembling archers, outlaws, and villagers.

Other highlights of a successful year were the exchange assembly with the New Rochelle High School, at which the Glee Club and the A Capella Chorus sang, and the Flag Day Assembly in June.

UNDER the direction of Mr. Briggs the Junior Band chalked up another successful year. Eighth periods on Tuesday and Thursday were spent polishing their musical numbers up in the tower for presentation at the Junior High assemblies. This approximately forty-piece band marched in the Memorial Day Parade complete with drum majorettes, Donna Clapper and Joanna Doyle.

The band boasts such talented musicians as Jimmy Dohrenwend, Lee Hanson, Herbert Libowitz and Miles Harvey. The main object that the band, including grades 7-9, strive toward is their eventual acceptance into the Senior High Band. Blessed with complete instrumentation, these members can complain only of their lack of uniforms. This constant cry serves to differentiate these musicians from their older brothers and sisters who sport Scarsdale's Maroon and White.

The Junior Band is an organization to take note of, as some of Scarsdale's best potential talents may be found among the serried ranks of this organization.

Dear Ellen,
I don't really belong on the sports page but here goes anyway---
I've know who you were for so many years but this is the first one that you've ever been more than a name. I expected you to be terrific all along and I wasn't the least bit disapointed. I hope to get to know you even better next year.
Love,
Esther

Dear Ellen,
It certainly has been fun knowing you. I only hope that we have some classes together next year and we'll be able to know each other better. You were terrific in the Variety Show. Lots of luck to a swell girl who is really going to go far.
Love, Dorothy

Dear Ellen,
Don't forget all the days in the Olde Variety Show. It was fun c'est-ce pas? I hope we meet again in W.T. for another year. Best of luck to a good sport.
Love n' kisses,
Cindy

Dear Ellen,
To a girl who's good at everying. Here's hoping we're together in tons of classes next year, especially French. We brains will have to stick together

COACH DAVE BUCHANAN built his team from five returning lettermen and a good J. V. of last year. At first the line seemed to be handicapped by a deficiency of weight, but their determination and drive well covered it. By keeping their opponents guessing at all times, they were almost always able to get that all-important jump. Play after play the Raider backfield could be seen waltzing by the opposing line through holes big enough for Coach Buchanan himself. If this was not completely true, however, the backfield would show its unforgettable drive. Many times by giving that last bit of punch, the Raider backs would chew up lacking yardage. A deceptive and fast-moving offense was built around the "T" and single wing formations. It contained power through the middle, speed around ends, and an almost mechanical passing attack. Owing to this mixture of offense, not once was the Raider attack completely stymied. 17 passes were intercepted by Scarsdale, while opponents did the same to only one. While this quantity of interceptions points out alertness in the defending backfield, it also describes well the rushing ability of the line. This aggressiveness is also reflected by the great number of Raider safeties. Through the naming of Dave Grogan to first-string All-County back, of Mike Dalton to second-string All-County end, of Al "Moose" Staley to third-string back, of Bill Ughetta, Bob Jackson and Harv Kaplan on the honorable mention list, and of Mills Ripley, Meril May, and John Phillips as recipients of All-County votes, Scarsdale added another tribute to its unblemished record. However, something intangible that makes for greatness of a team was instilled in everyone in any way connected with the team. In the final analysis, it will be this feeling surpassing the few concrete rewards the team received that will make the 1949 season one of the most memorable in Scarsdale annals.

CHEERLEADERS

"SIC-A-BOOM! Sica-A (OUCH—! Guess that last cartwheel was too much. Oh well) SCARSDALE RAH! R . . .! Hey, take a look at Grogan out yonder! And here comes "Moose"! Whadaya mean I'm not concentrating??" "What hit me? Meril, for your information, I'm not a goal post!" Besides grueling(?) practices, Sue and Rocky searched vainly for a remedy for rain-swept hair-dos for their cohorts who led us in the "RAHS" this year. Midge, Sally, Dennie, and Willie as newcomers joined the vets in arousing our pep.

Dear Ellen-
It's been so much fun being with you in H.R. this year. I'm looking forward to seeing your crazy drawings next year.
love always-
Babs.

Dear Ellen,
I really admire your talent in music. It will go a long way, I know. Have a wonderful time this summer and come back just as sweet as nice as you are now.
Love.
Elsa

Dear Ellen,
Such rip-roaring times we've had with M. Reid. Let's keep it up next year in Honors (?) French. Be good!
Love always,
"Punkii"

HOCKEY

"FIGHT on, Scarsdale High School—drive on down the field. Dribble to the goal line—We will never yield. Rah!! Rah!! Rah!! Heads up—watch your passing—hit the circle; drive!! Ground-sticks; ground-sticks STRIKE!! Ground-sticks; ground-sticks STRIKE! for we will win!!!" And we proceeded to do just that, by getting the Honor Team firmly under way. Sparked by a large percentage of returning Hippolytas and fired by Miss Isenberg's rigorous training, our female firecrackers sizzled into a bang-up season by singeing Pleasantville's whiskers, 0 to 0; J. V., 2-0. Pelham fared a little better, losing to the Varsity 5 to 0 and tying the J. V. 3-3. Ah, but Sister Bronxville pulled through true to style and gave us a hard time. The net scores were Varsity—Scarsdale 0, Bronxville 5; J. V.—Scarsdale 2, Bronxville 2; 3rd Team—Scarsdale 2, Bronxville 4. To offset this disappointment, we made a sensational showing at the annual Greenwich Playday. As a team, Scarsdale placed third in the rules contest; and Pris Mudge, Charl Schimmat, Barb Winning, and Delsa Walsh made the Public School Team, receiving certificates and awards. The team came out rather even on the scores, beating Chappaqua 1-0, tying Greenwich Academy 1-1, and dropping one to New Rochelle 0-1. Sandy Singer again passed the referee's test with flying colors, while, aided by Sue Klee, she acted as manager to these Olympic-bound pieces of femininity. The annual Poppa John banquet made a perfect end for an equally fine season of work and great rewards. Congratulations, kids!!

G.A.A.

A BITE to eat, a shuffling of feet, a hearty heigh-ho and they're off! We catch a glimpse of Scarsdale's female answer to the '49 football squad—Mac's illustrious G. A. A.! Under the faithful guidance of Miss Isenberg, these twelve representatives keep the femmes of S. H. S. well-occupied with a rigorous schedule of after-school sports, inter-scholastic programs, and sponsorship of an officials' club. Thanks to their efforts—we all remain the able(?) athletes that we are.

VARSITY CLUB

"O.K., you can turn off the spotlight—your letter is quite visible in broad daylight! Not that you don't deserve one." Here are the ones who play "slippy-slidey" in the mud all fall and spring for the glory of S. H. S. Furthermore, after the "S" is proudly displayed, they can't sit down for two weeks, for the next step is initiation into Varsity Club. Ushering at games and improving the athletic programs are the major functions of the clan—captained by Skip Reid.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

ONE, two, three—kick! Dribble, pass, shot—score! That's more the tune of the 1950 Girls' Basketball Team. With lots and lots of returning letter-winners and some more letter-winners-to-be, they really ripped up those courts. The new rules made a lot of difference, too, in the appearance of the games. Maybe pretty soon the boys and girls will be playing the same game—who knows? But we do know one thing in respect to this year's basketball team: it was one of the best teams that ever hit Scarsdale High—or the other schools they played!! Chappaqua, Pleasantville, Pelham and Bronxville really had to fight, for our squaws were on the warpath again, well armed by Miss Gruber with poisoned arrow plays and many dark days of tribal practice. C'mon, kids; let's have a warwhoop for the basketball team!!

WRESTLING

ANOTHER bunch of "Pinkmen" came through with an outstanding season this year. The season was started by a dramatic tie with Poly Prep and continued with Hackley and Trinity; a return match with Hackley ended groaning for the season. The squad consisted of returning varsity lettermen Bob Jackson, unlimited weight group; Harv Kaplan, 165; and Howard Levy, 132. New to the team, but wrestling like veterans were Bill Ughetta, 175; Bert Redegeld, 165; Ned MacDowell, 154; Roger Thies, 133; Matthew Mitchell, 127; Ken Swan, 123; Paul Phillips, 111; and Warren Brown, 103. As the mats were rolled up for 1950, we realized that in three short years, Dave Buchanan has developed a club of aspiring wrestlers into a first-class varsity sport with an extremely fine record. Thus another laurel is added to the honors due Coach Buchanan.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Dear Ellen,
You were terrific in the sophmore varieties. Do it again next year. Lots of luck
Dick

EVEN before the cheering had subsided for the sensational football team, practice started for basketball. After the first few cuts, the squad had dwindled to a group that Coach Schmidt could mould into a good team. Among the many returning vets were Dave Grogan and Dick Reeves. In addition to them came some height Scarsdale had lacked for several years: Del Davis, 6'3", Jim Hogan, 6'2", and Dan Mayers 6'5". Also moving up to varsity berths were the J. V. stars of last year — Ruel Smith, Al "Moose" Staley, Harry McIntyre, Herb Duval, Joe Cardinale, Terry Finsterbusch, and Keith Tucker.

The season opened at home against a newcomer to Scarsdale basketball competition, Briarcliff. Led by Dave Grogan, who played the best game of his long basketball career at Scarsdale, the Raiders pounded out a 53-41 decision over a weak club. Not scoring for the first five minutes because of the lack of experience, the Raiders came alive with Del Davis, Dick Reeves, and Herb Duval controlling the backboards while Jim Hogan did the shooting. When Del acquired four personals, he was replaced by Dan Mayers. After the battle smoke cleared, Grogan turned up to be the day's high score with seventeen points.

Next we traveled to Connecticut, Darien in particular. There, a rip-snorting close game was won by the home team. Hindered by a low ceiling which stopped Grogan's usually accurate high-arching set, the Raiders never got a chance to open up. Darien, accustomed to the home territory, sank many low shots through the net. Their accuracy was phenomenal. Herb Duval drove inside often enough to score eleven points, while Del Davis was second for the Raiders with ten. Final score was Scarsdale 45—Darien 47.

The sad travels continued to Concordia, where another "squeaker" was lost. Jim Hogan's outstanding shooting from everywhere on the court kept the game at the nip and tuck stage throughout. Neither team could open up an appreciable lead throughout the afternoon. When the Raiders took possession of the ball, trailing 42-40 with seconds to go, chances were slim for any hope. Hogan took the ball at the half court marker and heaved. Swish, buzzer, and overtime. The overtime was just as thrilling as the previous portion of play. With a score of 45-45, Concordia's Boheny broke through and scored. Concordia's freeze ended the game with a chill for Scarsdale, 47-45.

After losing two such exceptionally close games, Scarsdale went to Horace Mann completely disheartened. Upon arrival they were greeted by Jerry Gordon, basketball player extraordinaire. Before leaving he had outscored the whole Scarsdale varsity by eight points. Aided by very poor play from Scarsdale, Gordon and Company mauled the bloody Red Raiders 67-30. Del Davis was high scorer for Scarsdale with nine points.

After losing three straight, Scarsdale returned to the home court and winning ways. Some spirit returned as Darien and Scarsdale met for the last time. Apparent throughout the game was the fact that the Raiders were out to win and win they did. Dick Reeves and Del Davis were excellent under the boards, while Herb Duval was superb on defense. Reeves led the scoring with seventeen points, while Grogan and Davis followed with eleven each. Although the final score was 57-39, Scarsdale's foul shooting was way off, sinking only one in three attempts.

Northward to Hackley traveled the Raiders to do battle with undefeated Hackley. Scarsdale plowed under 43 to 34. Another trip and the Raiders were in Pelham. 6'9" "Pine Tree" Doherty led Pelham to victory 53-36. The last day of January saw the Raiders trounce Pleasantville 55-37. Into Scarsdale came the hard luck Broncos. The Raiders continued to win, this time 52-33. Eastchester surprised us by winning 36-45. We took on the New York School for the Deaf next, and the Raiders played one of their best games of the 1950 season although they lost 75-72. Then they were away to Rye, then home to face Mamaroneck, Pelham and Harrison. The last game of the season was played in Bronxville against a rejuvenated Bronco club.

Scarsdale basketball proved this year that it is on the upgrade. Since the 1948 season, the teams have begun to show more and more of the spark expected of them. It will not be too many years before basketball at SHS will again be one of our strong points.

Whose Ball?

BOYS' BASEBALL
Sitting: R. Skelton, H. Levy, W. West, R. West, R. Leerburger. Standing: R. Corelli, M. May, J. Hogan, R. Miller, Mr. Leonard, Coach; R. Kennet. Missing in action: D. Grogan, R. Maslow, M. Dalton, H. Duval.

Dear Ellen,
I bet you will be very lonely next year. Well good luck anyway.

BOYS' BASEBALL

THIS year's diamond demons maintained Scarsdale's supremacy in baseball. All positions had able guardians, whether they were regular at that position or not. Maintaining his hold on first base throughout the season was Ruel Smith, while at second was the veteran Dick Maslow. On the left side of the diamond were ace Mike Dalton at shortstop, and "hot corner" duties were shared between Bernie Cropsey and Bob Kennett. From this combination Scarsdale attained one of the best infields, hitting and fielding, to be seen in action in Westchester County for some time. Dick Reeves shifted his strong arm from both ends of the battery to the outfield. Also, alternating between pitching and outfield duties was Meril May, while Keith Tucker devoted his time to being third man of the S. H. S. pitching staff. Sluggers who restricted their action to the outfield were John Trimble, Dick West, and Ron Corelli. Also appearing when needed were able assistants Herb Duval, Harry McIntyre and Dick Leerburger as infielders. Catching in the bullpen and in quite a few varsity games was rookie Walt West.

For the past three seasons Scarsdale has maintained an extremely fine record of wins. Again pitching was a dominant factor with more records being made by the artists of the horsehide. Coach Leonard has had some fine material to work with in the past few years and has moulded seasonal averages of which Scarsdale is proud. Although baseball is not as heavily attended as the more popular sports, it has improved in respect to student interest as well as in quality of play.

CROSS COUNTRY
First row: J. Myles, M. Mitchell, J. Curran, J. McKittrick, C. Kellogg. Second row: W. McEwen, Manager; J. Hunger, R. Hagemeyer, B. Phillips, W. Burt, C. Adams, Mr. Wohlers, Coach. Missing in action: B. Ford, F. Kleeman.

CROSS COUNTRY

OVER hill, over dale, their sneakers hit the trail as the flying cross country effortlessly travel the miles. A squad ably coached and encouraged by Mr. Wohlers had an exceptional record this year. Starring were Bruce Phillips, Benson Ford, Frank Kleeman, Don Hagemyer, and Warren Burt. Other featurists were Jack Curran, John Hunger, Clark Adams, Jack McKittrick, Chever Kellogg and Matthew Mitchell. The season ended with a fine job done by all. The first seven mentioned traveled to the sectional meet, where Bruce Phillips' silver-winged shoes broke the existing course record, placing Scarsdale among the top teams of the county. Needless to say, in the years to come, such teams as this will place cross country among the leading popular sports of the school.

TRACK

COACH Fred Wohlers was very much elated by the stream of aspiring candidates to fill the vacancies left by the graduation of last year's ample squad. This year most of the replacement material are graduates of the Wohlers' farm system (intramural track). By this medium Coach Wohlers has been able to use boys versed in the art instead of green rookies.

This year the strength seemed to lie in the sprints and the mile. The half-mile and the field events appeared to be the weakest. Although the discus throwing event has been dropped from the agenda, the 120 yard hurdles seemed to have gained more than enough interest to replace it.

This year there have been a greater number of meets scheduled. These include Ossining, Hackley, Yonkers, Eastchester, Pelham, Bronxville, the Westchester Relays and topped off by the Section I State Meet.

TRACK

GIRLS' ARCHERY

ARCHERY

WHAT'S this? Try-outs for Prince of Foxes? You might think so, and it surely might look that way if these girls were in costume. But no—look again! Why, it's the archery team at work. Amid cries of "Hey, Mary, you hit the Good Humor Man" and "What's that thing for, with the feather on the end?" the girls calmly went on hitting bullseye after bullseye and winning meets with other schools. The team, headed by Eva Kraepelien, a veteran of three years, and directed by Miss Gruber, once again distinguished itself in the National Tournament. No wonder, with all the hours of blood, sweat and plain ole practice they went through. Miss Gruber, some claim, wore out three cat o' nine tails, four blackjacks and seven boomerangs. Nevertheless, these gals worked hard and well deserved the fine record they made this year. We have only one word of advice—keep clear of these females, 'cause you are liable to get bullseyed in the conventional spot!

SOFTBALL

SPRING again—and there's the S. H. S. softball team limbering up those forgotten muscles—forgotten, that is, until the day after the first practice! Once the kinks are all out, however, they really get going. A typical workout finds Spongey S. and Linda (Charleston) G. wandering around under loads of equipment—"Omigosh, I forgot the catcher's mitt!!!" On the diamond our sensational pitching staff, Bobbie Steenson, Sue Howe and Sig Winters, are giving the rest of the team a good workout under the vigilant eyes of Miss You-beat-them-or-else Thompson. Of course there are the usual kibitzers standing around, wondering volubly why that base runner is standing like a bump on a log until the pitch. Want to take them on, boys? You might be surprised! Maybe you would be as impressed as Pleasantville, Pelham and Bronxville were! A vote of thanks to Miss Thompson, who pulled our feminine big leaguers through a true Scarsdale High Season.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL
Kneeling: S. Singer, M. Bell, S. Clark, E. Edwards, M. Wesseler, S. Winters, J. Winkel, J. Crimmins. Standing: C. Schimmat, S. Howe, J. Hoebermann, C. Feindel, B. Irish, M. Higgins, J. Walker, H. Ridgway, B. Peterson, M. Gatchell, M. Reker, J Christie, Miss Thompson, Coach. Missing in action: C. Springer, Manager; L. Goetz, Assistant Manager; S. Howe.

BOYS' TENNIS

BOYS' TENNIS

IN the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of regents and recreation. Cat-gut and wood provide many an hour of relaxation. Because of the loss of the first five lettermen of last year, Mr. Pratt had only two vets to use as a nucleus for a tennis team. These players, Dan Mayers and Bob Mnuchin, were assets because of their height, drive, and experience. Battling with them for position on the team were newcomers Bill Ughetta, Benson Ford, Tom Throop, Michael O'Hearn, Charles Tippy, Doug Scalapino and George Hull. Coach Pratt filled the spaces with these men and went on to mold a good team to represent Scarsdale High in the county. This has been the first time in many years Scarsdale has not had an individual star. Last year Bruce Vogel took the honors, while preceding him was the era of Lewyn. However, Dan Mayers reached the finals in the Westchester County competition and showed natural ability that may make him another of Scarsdale's top courtmen.

GIRLS' TENNIS
Kneeling: Miss Isenberg, Coach. Standing: P. Berlin, R. Dohrenwend, L. Barnes, J. Koerner.

GIRLS' TENNIS

"BUT, doggone it, Miss Isenberg, could I help it if there was a bump in the court?" That plaintive voice is no less than that of a member of our girls' style tennis team explaining the only return she lost. The fast-moving, well coordinated action, the fine offense, as well as the good defense typified the extraordinary season of girls' tennis. No wonder—look at the team. There are Lucie Bel Barnes, Joan Koerner, Patty Berlin, Renata Dohrenwend, and Prill Couch, to mention only a few who romped over the courts this year. These energetic misses made Miss Isenberg's job as coach a relatively easy one. Small surprise it is, then, to hear of the great season put forth by our female Jack Kramers and Poncho Gonzales! It is through the worthy efforts of these athletes (girl type), who receive little of the credit due them for their superior feats accomplished on the courts, that tennis is becoming more and more of a spectator sport for high school eyes.

Dear Ellen,
Hasn't this been the year. I guess you two are fortunate to get in any of my classes except study hall. Aren't you lucky hek hek. I can see where we are going to have quite the funds and what can get the taxmeat. Oh well, such is life. I missed you in French this year but you're too smart interested in being on the honor roll. I know you're I am too - maybe can't I.) hek hek - on it one of this really go far with luck on it to you, as if you needed it. Take care of Dick and this summer write me. Honest and if your real good I may answer it - ha. Have a wonderful summer - lots o' love. "Lynn" Butch

Dear Ellen,
Well, it's probable but not possible that we'll have the same schedule next year. It's too bad 'cause it sure has been fun. Anyway, I'm sure to see each other in some class. Also I expect to see you at the club this summer. Lots of love + luck to you!

Thirty-Five Years of Shipping Progress

Experience is the best teacher . . . in shipping as in any other field of human endeavor. Through thirty-five years of steady progress, Moore-McCormack Lines have mastered the specialized skills which assure efficient operation...Today, our big, fast, modern ships—both cargo and passenger—carry the American flag on trade routes of key importance: between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States, and in South America, Scandinavia and continental Europe.

Within the last year, Mooremack ships set four new speed records in reaching foreign ports, impressive evidence not only of the efficiency of our vessels, but also of the ability of ship's personnel and of the management directing operations. The shipper who entrusts his cargo to Mooremack . . . the passenger who voyages abroad in Mooremack comfort . . . both benefit by all that this organization has learned in thirty-five years of growth.

MOORE-McCORMACK Lines

5 Broadway New York 4, N. Y.

From Pearl Harbor to V-J Day, Moore-McCormack Lines operated more than 150 ships, lost 11 vessels, transported 754,239 troops and carried 34,410,111 tons of war cargo. To discharge such responsibilities in time of crisis, America's Merchant Marine must be kept strong in peace —as in war.

of you and your classmates upon your school life achieve immortality in a carefully planned and executed yearbook.

From the arid desert of Arizona, and the sultry green island of Puerto Rico, to the snow-blanketed slopes of Northern New England, we have traveled, happy and proud to have been an instrument in the translating into print, the humor pathos, excitement, and sentiment found in the campus life of over seventy-five colleges and preparatory schools.

As former members of yearbook staffs in our school days, we bring into our professional duties a real understanding of the many problems confronting each yearbook editor.
